

Outreach

Navajoland Mission Partnership is one of our primary outreach programs. Since 1991, volunteers from Boulder have traveled to southeastern Utah over spring break to offer a Christian education program to children and adults in two Navajo congregations. The trip includes daily worship and time to explore the red rock desert around Bluff, Utah. Volunteers are needed to teach, cook, work on computers, and provide other services. E-mail navajoland@saintaidans.org

St. Aidan's also supports the website for the Episcopal Diocese of Navajoland www.episcopal-navajo.org and it is administrated by Charley Noecker.

The Outreach Commission directs all Outreach programs beyond CU Boulder and Navajoland Mission Partnership. Our Outreach programs are active locally and far beyond the Boulder area. They include African Team Ministries, Emergency Family Assistance Association, Episcopal Relief and Development, Habitat for Humanity, holiday food baskets, Family to Family, Joycare Center at the First Christian Church, which provides affordable childcare for infants and preschool children for working parents during weekdays, Kenyan Children's Fund, St. Francis Center shelter for the homeless in Denver, and United Thank Offering (UTO). Wherever there is a need, the people of St. Aidan's parish seek to act as Christ called us to act. E-mail outreach@saintaidans.org

The Sweater Project invites knitters to knit sweaters for children according to a provided pattern. Every time five sweaters have been completed, they are mailed to an organization that then distributes them in areas of the world where there is a need. Email Mollie Lee sweaters@saintaidans.org for more information.
