Vicki Zust St. Paul's feeding body and soul

John Moore St. Luke's: The Art of Living Your Faith (although that's more tagline than mission statement)

Trawin E. Malone Pg. 855 in the Book of Common Prayer. The mission of the Church.

Jane Schmoetzer "Equipping the saints to seek and serve Christ in all people."

Kay K. Cook I always liked the one at St Jude's Cedar City: Celebrating God's Grace, sharing the journey.

Vivian Morales Willow Creek Community Church in Illinois: turning irreligious people into fully devoted followers of Jesus.

Emily Ross We have some doozies at St. Peter's it used to be "We are joy-filled witnesses for Christ in our Communities" now it is 'We are a prayerful, diverse and growing community of faith dedicated to helping others know Jesus Christ through word, sacraments and actions."

Carol Park St Mary Magdalene: A community celebrating and sharing God's love.

Julie Reynolds McNitt Living in God's love. Reaching out with hope. (Atonement Lutheran in Denver)

Elise Keddie St. Martin's Davis CA: Where God can be found, and God can find you

Bill Murray "We are seldom on a mission, but always on a journey."

Bonnie Sarah Spencer Guided by Christ, we welcome, nurture and serve!

Mission Statements from the Vestry

We are a parish church that loves Jesus, each other, and our neighbors, with an emphasis on expanding our ministry with the University of Colorado campus.

To build a stable congregation, rooted in Christ's love for one another, that welcomes all ages, races, sexual orientations etc.
